

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Release Form

FERPA is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student educational records. Schools who participate in federal aid programs under the U.S. Department of Education are required to abide by this law. Under this law, specific information regarding your financial aid records and status may not be released to third parties without your written consent.

I, the undersigned, hereby authorize the University of the District of Columbia David A. Clarke School of Law to release the specified financial aid records and information to the specified person(s):

Financial Aid Records and Information:

---

---

---

Print full name(s) of authorized person(s) to whom you give the Office of Financial Aid permission to release information:

---

---

For the purpose of:

---

---

---

I understand that this consent shall remain in effect until revoked by me in writing.

Student's Signature

Date

Student's Name (Please Print)

Student Identification Number or Last 4 Digits of SSN