

Upper Level Writing Requirement: Applied Legal Writing

Student Name: _____ Student ID: N_____

Students meet the Applied Legal Writing Requirement (ALWR) by producing at least two original written products that satisfy Student Handbook Section 1.6.2. Students who are required to take two clinics must produce one written product that satisfies the rule in each clinic in which they earn credit. Students who are required to take one clinic must produce two written products that satisfy the rule in the clinic in which they earn credit.

- 1. Obtain approval from your clinic supervisor and attach your approved, redacted written product as you complete each one. If you have questions about redacting your work to protect client identities and confidences, please consult your clinic supervisor for guidance.

The attached written product constitutes the student's original written work product and satisfies the Applied Legal Writing Requirement (ALWR) criteria described in Section 1.6.2 of the UDC David A. Clarke School of Law Student Handbook, Volume I.

Written Product 1: _____

Clinic: _____

Clinic Supervisor's Name (print)

Clinic Supervisor's Signature

Date

Written Product 2: _____

Clinic: _____

Clinic Supervisor's Name (print)

Clinic Supervisor's Signature

Date

- 2. If the clinic in which the written product was produced was supervised by an adjunct faculty member, both the clinic supervisor and the Associate Dean of Experiential and Clinical Programs (or Associate Dean for Academic Affairs) must review and approve the written product.

I confirm that the written product(s) meet the ALWR criteria described in Section 1.6.2 of the UDC David A. Clarke School of Law Student Handbook, Volume I.

Associate Dean

Date

- 3. Once you have obtained all required signatures, submit this form and your approved, redacted written products to the Clinic Staff Assistant, who will keep your written products, time-stamp your form, copy it, and return the original. You must submit the original time-stamped form to the Registrar's office. The Registrar will then enter your ALWR completion on your academic record.

For Registrar's use: Copy returned to student Entered Original form placed in student's file

Practice Law. Promote Justice. Change Lives.