

Upper Level Writing Requirement: Applied Legal Writing

Students meet the Applied Legal Writing Requirement (ALWR) by producing at least one written product that satisfies UDC Law Student Handbook, Volume I, Section 1.6.2 in each required clinic. Students required to take two clinics must obtain certification from both clinics. Students required to take one clinic must obtain certification from that clinic. If the clinic in which the written product is produced is supervised by an adjunct faculty member, both the adjunct faculty member and the Associate Dean of Experiential and Clinical Programs must review and approve the written product. The ALWR requirement must be met, including obtaining the clinic supervisor's approval, before conclusion of the semester in which the student is enrolled in that clinic. See Section 1.6.2
