

Upper Level Writing Requirement: Applied Legal Writing

Student Name: _____ Student ID: N _____

Student's Clinic Requirement: Two 7-credit clinics  One 10-credit clinic

Students meet the Applied Legal Writing Requirement (ALWR) by producing at least one written product that satisfies UDC Law Student Handbook, Volume I, Section 1.6.2 in each required clinic. Students required to take two clinics must obtain certification from both clinics. Students required to take one clinic must obtain certification from that clinic. If the clinic in which the written product is produced is supervised by an adjunct faculty member, both the adjunct faculty member and the Associate Dean of Experiential and Clinical Programs must review and approve the written product. The ALWR requirement must be met, including obtaining the clinic supervisor's approval, before conclusion of the semester in which the student is enrolled in that clinic. See Section 1.6.2.

1. Before completion of the clinic semester, obtain the required signature(s) and submit this signed form to the Managing Attorney.

The written product described below constitutes the student's original written work product and satisfies the Applied Legal Writing Requirement (ALWR) criteria described in Section 1.6.2 of the UDC David A. Clarke School of Law Student Handbook, Volume I.

2. If the clinic in which the written product was produced was supervised by an adjunct faculty member, both the clinic supervisor and the Associate Dean of Experiential and Clinical Programs (or Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in the Clinical Dean's absence) must review and approve the written product. After you obtain approval from your supervising professor, attach your approved, redacted written product and send both to the Clinical Dean. Consult your clinic supervisor for guidance on redacting the work product to protect client confidentiality.

I confirm that the written product meets the ALWR criteria described in Section 1.6.2 of the UDC David A. Clarke School of Law Student Handbook, Volume I.
